

DELHI TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY
Department of Humanities

Let's Talk - An English Learner's Collective

Subject: Report of Motivational Talk held on 22 December 2022

The motivational talk was held on 22 December 2022. Aman Dhattarwal - a public speaker and influencer was invited to interact with the freshers of Delhi Technological University and share the importance of communication skills in one's life and his own. Another guest - Ms. Soumya Gautam, the Assistant Director of NITI Aayog was invited too. But due to some issues, she could not attend the event.

The event was held in the B. R. Auditorium. The event involved the contribution of more than 40 volunteers which included freshers, sophomores, and 3rd years of DTU. Proper care was taken to avoid any kind of chaos or mismanagement. Refreshments were distributed to the volunteers as well as the guards of B. R. Auditorium. As soon as the crowd exceeded the maximum capacity of the auditorium, the gates were locked by the guards.

The event started as per schedule at 01:00 P.M. The host provided details about what Let's Talk does and how it functions, along with fun activities involving the audience. The guest, Aman Dhattarwal, arrived around 02:00 P.M. He spoke till 04:30 P.M. The event ended at around 05:00 P.M. This motivational talk was a part of the Orientation of the society.

It was a huge success. A crowd of more than 400 students gathered in the B. R. Auditorium for the event. The event was for the students of DTU only. Our society gained massive recognition and humongous recruitment after this event.