

NRITYANGANA DTU

The Indian Dance Society of DTU

Nrityangana is the official student-led Indian dance (classical and cultural) society of Delhi Technological University (Formerly Delhi College of Engineering).

Established in 2013, it has seen its fair share of ups and downs. As of today, it stands stronger than ever with its 20+ member strong team comprising students of all genders and spanning all branches and courses offered at the University.

We take great pride in being the flag bearers of culture via our chosen form of performing arts and are grateful to the college authorities for continuously appreciating and supporting us in our endeavors!

VISION

- We aim to set a benchmark & give due importance to cultivating the Indian Tradition.
- We strive to take Nrityangana at the top and maintain the legacy.
- Dance can have many purposes including expression, communication, education, therapy, recreation, or entertainment and may function in personal, social and spiritual environments. In the times of westernization, we're the proud flag bearers of Indian art and culture.
- Nrityangana also organizes ceremonies to secure contributions and raise awareness for causes. Our fundraising events generate significant revenue for social impact organizations.
- We as a society are open to all people in order to accommodate and improve the talents of each and every member. From complete beginners to near experts, we have a diverse group of dancers ranging in all levels of ability.
- We share methods to enhance your overall personality outside of society.
